DARNELL CREEK

MOUNTAIN WATERFALL PROPERTY

137.87± ACRES | WILKES COUNTY, NC

WATERFALLS • JUST UNDER ONE MILE OF DARNELL CREEK • MOUNTAIN VIEWS

137.87± Acres | Darnell Creek Road | Millers Creek, Wilkes County, NC

Tucked away in the rugged mountain landscape of Wilkes County, this extraordinary 137.87± acre property offers a rare combination of natural beauty, seclusion, and diverse mountain terrain. Highlighted by two impressive cascading waterfalls, the property features an abundance of water resources, dramatic elevation changes, scenic ridgelines, and an extensive network of interior trails.

Darnell Creek winds through the heart of the property for just under a mile, creating a remarkable natural corridor accented by cascading waters, rocky streambeds, and picturesque mountain scenery. Several additional tributaries traverse the landscape, offering smaller waterfalls and unique natural features throughout the tract. The property's elevated ridges provide opportunities to enjoy sweeping mountain views, while the surrounding wooded slopes and secluded hollows create an exceptional sense of privacy.

An established network of old logging roads and trails provides access throughout much of the acreage, allowing for exploration of the property's varied topography and natural features. Whether envisioned as a private mountain retreat, recreational getaway, hunting property, or long-term land investment, the tract offers tremendous versatility. Opportunities for hiking, fishing, ATV riding, wildlife observation, and other outdoor pursuits further enhance its appeal.

Despite its secluded mountain setting, the property enjoys a desirable location within reach of two of northwestern North Carolina's most inviting mountain communities. Situated just over 15 miles north of Wilkesboro, the property offers convenient access to shopping, dining, medical services, and the area's rich cultural heritage. Wilkesboro is well known for its historic downtown, the nationally recognized MerleFest music festival, and nearby W. Kerr Scott Reservoir, which offers exceptional boating, fishing, hiking, and mountain biking opportunities. Approximately 11 miles to the west lies the charming mountain town of West Jefferson, celebrated for its vibrant downtown arts district, locally owned shops and restraunts. The surrounding High Country also provides access to the scenic Blue Ridge Parkway, numerous outdoor attractions, and the distinctive mountain culture that makes this region so desirable. This combination of peaceful mountain seclusion and proximity to established communities adds another dimension to the property's appeal.

With its extensive creek frontage, multiple waterfalls, scenic mountain elevations, and substantial acreage, this property represents a distinctive opportunity to own a remarkable piece of the North Carolina mountains. Properties combining this level of privacy, natural water features, and recreational diversity are increasingly difficult to find.
